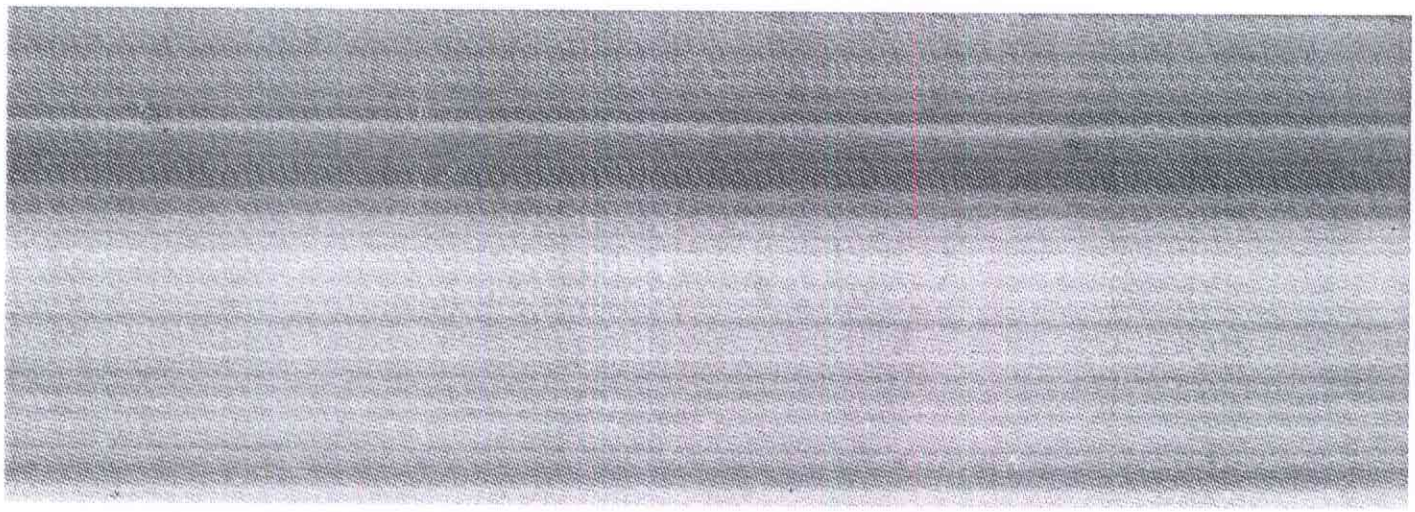
Dear Harold:

Enclosed are 3 copies of the first review received here. It's wonderful.

I sent Case Open to Mort Sahl the other day. It will be interesting to see his response. As soon as anything comes in I'll send it to you immediately.

When I can get my turn at the computer I continue to enter the original manuscript for you. Others use the computer so it's a little difficult, but I'll be sending more chapters to you next week.

Love,


Raphael
